Voxware Named to Food Logistics' 2017 FL100+ Top Software and Technology Providers List

Fifth appearance on annual list recognizing Top Software and Technology Providers

Hamilton, NJ —December 18, 2017 — Food Logistics, the only publication exclusively dedicated to covering the movement of product through the global food supply chain, has named Voxware to its 2017 FL100+ Top Software and Technology Providers list, marking the third consecutive year Voxware has been recognized and fifth overall.

The annual FL100+ Top Software and Technology Providers list serves as a resource guide of software and technology providers whose products and services are critical for companies in the global food and beverage supply chain.

“New developments and innovations in the software and technology sector are making sizeable impacts on the global food supply chain,” notes Lara L. Sowinski, editorial director for Food Logistics and its sister publication, Supply & Demand Chain Executive. “The result is a greater visibility, improved regulatory compliance, enhanced shelf life for perishables, and the emergence of a more proactive and nimble food supply chain that benefits both the food industry and its logistics partners, as well as the end consumer.”

As a leader in innovating the supply chain, Voxware remains committed to helping its customers become more productive and efficient by delivering the right solution at the right time to maximize the efficiency of the distribution center. It's Food & Beverage customers consist of some of the industry's most respected and recognized brands including Whole Foods, US Foods, Performance Food Group, Puerto Rico Supplies Group, Krasdale, Fond du Lac Cold Storage, Anacapri, Safeway Group, E.A. Sween Company, Utah Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (UDABC), 7-11, Buffalo Rock Beverages and Food Service, Eagle Beverage Products and Kohl Wholesale.

Additionally, Voxware's technology is relied upon by some of the nation's largest food banks. One of the ways to serve more hungry families is to increase the speed at which food is processed. Harvesters Community Food Network, The Greater Boston Food Bank, Greater Cleveland Food Bank, Community Food Bank of New Jersey and the Houston Food Bank are some of the organizations benefitting from Voxware's solutions.

“We are proud to be selected to Food Logistics' FL100+ Top Software and Technology providers list for the third year in a row,” said Keith Phillips, President and CEO of Voxware. “Not only does Voxware VMS enable companies to improve efficiency by as much as 30%, it also helps companies improve traceability to expand the ability to recall items in the event of contaminations or other safety concerns throughout the supply chain. Voxware has a long and successful history in the food logistics market and we continue to work with our customers to provide the most advanced solutions to support the changing requirements of the industry.”

Companies on this year's 2017 FL100+ Top Software and Technology Providers list will be profiled in the November/December 2017 issue of Food Logistics, as well as online at www.foodlogistics.com.
